A Warm Welcome from Dean Nancy Ann Leeder

Join us in our beautiful mountain retreat as we welcome newcomers and greet old friends! Experience for yourself the rich and varied offerings of PSWIRL Week.

Camp deBenville Pines

The Camp and Conference Center is owned and operated by the Pacific Southwest Unitarian Universalists District. It is located at 6800 feet in the San Bernardino National Forest among towering ponderosa pines, oaks and cedars with a creek nearby, and Jenks Lake within walking and hiking distance. It has an Olympic sized heated swimming pool and hot tub. Fresh, nutritionally balanced meals are served with vegetarian meals on request.

Accommodations

Rustic cabins and dorms are equipped with new bunks and mattresses. Bring your own sleeping bag or bedding. Cabin rooms sleep up to 4, Dorms sleep up to 6. All buildings have gas heat and bathrooms with showers. Craig's Cabin has large double beds and a common area with kitchen.
